

Tell Me

© 1998 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- guitars, synths & drums
Dan Merrill- lead vocals Andrea Re & Nancy Etnier- backing vocal Sog Glendon- bass
Dave Fields- cymbals
Joe Wainer- outro drums

It's a sad day
I can hardly see them
Some of them
I'd like to meet
but I just can't
you know the reason...
Your memory kills me
your echo fills me
After I fall

Tell me-
you've had enough Let me get out Let me forget I get out I Get these I get religion
Objectify
Objects will testify and oxidize as your agent
I'm your reproach
I'm the thing that we left outside Remember...
Try to help me end it... try to be the object: object
objectify

Disposable World

© 1977 Mike Laskey. Used by permission Written by Mike Laskey
Arranged by John Etnier John Etnier- vocals, guitars, synths & drums Chip Harding- backing vocal arrangement Chip Harding, Mary Hanson & Rachel McCartney- backing vocals

I went down to the dump just the other day and there were fifty pairs of brand-new shoes there There's a whole lot of people down there who throw away things I could use There was a tire, and 3 editorials...

And there was a tire, there was a sofa
that didn't look too bad, a suitcase that still worked-I can't believe the things you throw away!!!

All the power, all the glory, they owe me money Big bucks and they owe me everything they stand for and they won't let me pick up the pieces
All the power, and all the things they put together and all the things they throw away

I was just hangin' round the other mornin', didn't have nothin' to do I went out to the side of the road pickin' up things thrown 'way by you
I went down to the dump just the other day and there were fifty pairs of brand-new shoes there-There's a whole lot of people down there-I could use

Show them
the way you got showed by me Show them
what they want to see

After I Fall

© 1998 Etnier/Re • Driven Music (BMI) John Etnier- guitars, synths & drum fills Andrea Re- lyrics, melody & vocals
Matt Lucy- guitar solo Rob Roy- bass
Dave Fields- drum kit

People on the street
They move so fast
I can hardly see them
Some of them
I'd like to meet
but I just can't
you know the reason...
Your memory kills me
your echo fills me
After I fall

After you- after you leave me
The faster I fall
After you- after you leave me
After I fall
After you leave me
After I fall

So when the days go by But every morning the same horizon Oh- the time passes by Their lack of passion will be my poison How can I let you go?

And once again we won't meet Another drink
never hurt anybody
Maybe tonight I'll sleep Dead to the world-dead to anything and anybody Got no visions-you took them with you (Chorus)

So sometimes I forget
never hurt anybody
Another drink
And then you're here-You're all around me

How will I ever let you go?
Will I ever let you go?

Fall

© 1990 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- synths & drums
From The Seasons
Stephanie Leighton- choreographer

Standing On Water

© 1998 Etnier/McDonnell/Re • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- guitars, synths & drums
Kate McDonnell- lyrics, melody & vocals
Andrea Re- lyrics, melody & vocals
Nancy Etnier- backing vocals

How do I know
if there's a heart at all?
Mostly in shadow, so beaten, so small Half in shadow, half in light A heart is a heart when it's full and beating

How do I know
the sound of my voice?
Stifled by dreaming and drowning in choice A world is turning People are dreaming A tear is a tear when you face fear alone

Standing on water,
moon shines like the sun
If we believe nothing it's all left undone Sun or moon- land or sea
A life is a life- a miracle always

Microballet

© 1990 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)

For Nina

John Etnier- synths & percussion

King

© 1998 Etnier/Re/Myers/Hicks Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- guitars, synths, computer voice & drums
Andrea Re- lyrics, melody & vocals
Cameron Myers- lyrics, melody & vocals
M. C. Dray (Andre Hicks)- rap | lyrics Nancy Etnier- backing vocal Steve Johnson- outro drum loop

Anal energy- innocent boy Envisioning a new world In the light- shining bright behind the curtain he stands alone so shy everyone's gonna want him-everyone's gonna take him-everyone

A platinum icon handsome and young Your days burned like the sun
A rock 'n' roll crooner broken and old Your light turned dark and cold

Picture of a rock star in the past and I know people wish time would stand still but things last as long as they're supposed to let's take a closer look and I won't tough ya but I let no one off the hook Now a crook is someone who stole my tunes and he assumes he's going to make a million, a killing like "99 Red Balloons" floating high in the sky you wonder why I apply all the pressure to shake rattle and roll your grave or just to stress ya- nevertheless ya-Eouts the argument so you lose I represent the old time blues when I say don't stop on my blue suede shoes then- they know that you know the messages that I'm sending you comprehending it wasn't perfect but it was the ending

He crosses the color line so beautiful, so willing-Such a passionate loner-A familiar stranger Who loses himself just to win you He gives all he has

The world told you to be the King...

Oh- I love you
You're tough as nails
Red as they laugh
at you're surviving

Yes you are
One more year
Come over here
Sweet red bird
My old friend
How do you fly
With just one eye?

© 1998 Etnier/McDonnell/Re • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- guitars, synths & drums
Kate McDonnell- lyrics, melody & vocals
Andrea Re- lyrics, melody & vocals
Nancy Etnier- backing vocals

FFZ

© 1990 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI) John Etnier- synths, guitars & drums Tracy MacLean- vocals Sog Glendon- non-looped bass Joe Wainer- cymbals

Second Homage to Ornette

© 1994 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- synths & guitar
Joe Wainer- drums

Operational

© 1998 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
From a dance score sketch for Sam Costa John Etnier- guitars, synths & samples Andrea Re- backing vocals
Joe Wainer- drums

Intention

© 1996 Etnier/Daddaberes • Driven Music (BMI)
John Etnier- guitars, synths & drums
Sidd Daddaberes- lyrics, melody & vocals

He will not bake
She will not enjoy He will not hope without a clear voyance He wish not a lot about the do-not truth But she lie not tell

As all of her will know all of his intentions
He will not strike
She will not play
She wills up hope until his clear voyance He fights back guilt among the paranoid Says "should I not tell"

As of all of her intentions My worries and words don't mean shit

© 1998 Etnier/McDonnell • Driven Music (BMI) John Etnier- guitars, bass & drums
Kate McDonnell- lyrics, melody & vocals
Mark Wainer- lead guitars Jason Ricci- harmonica Andrea Re- percussion Steve Johnson- drums & tambourines

On you're here back again After one long year Has it been one long year?
You feel forsaken
But you can see Fly through seasons
For one that barely sees They laugh at you while you're not looking

Yes you see Clear as glass Turn a blind eye
If you can make it so can I

Oh- I love you
You're tough as nails
Red as they laugh
at you're surviving

Yes you are
One more year
Come over here
Sweet red bird
My old friend
How do you fly
With just one eye?

© 1993 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
From Invidax Harmonics art installation John Etnier- guitars, synths & percussion

The Foetus

© 1990 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
From The Seasons
Stephanie Leighton- choreographer
John Etnier- synths, guitar & percussion

Winter

© 1990 John Etnier • Driven Music (BMI)
From The Seasons
Stephanie Leighton- choreographer
John Etnier- synths, guitar
& percussion

Guitar- 1974

modem

Written and performed by John Etnier with the help of those noted overleaf

Produced by John Etnier & Mark Wainer

Recorded 1974-98 at Studio Dual and Megaphone

Mastered by Toby Mountain at Northeastern Digital

Design & images by John Etnier

©, © John Etnier 1974-98

Special thanks to Mark, Joe,
Andrea & Kate

For Mom, with love

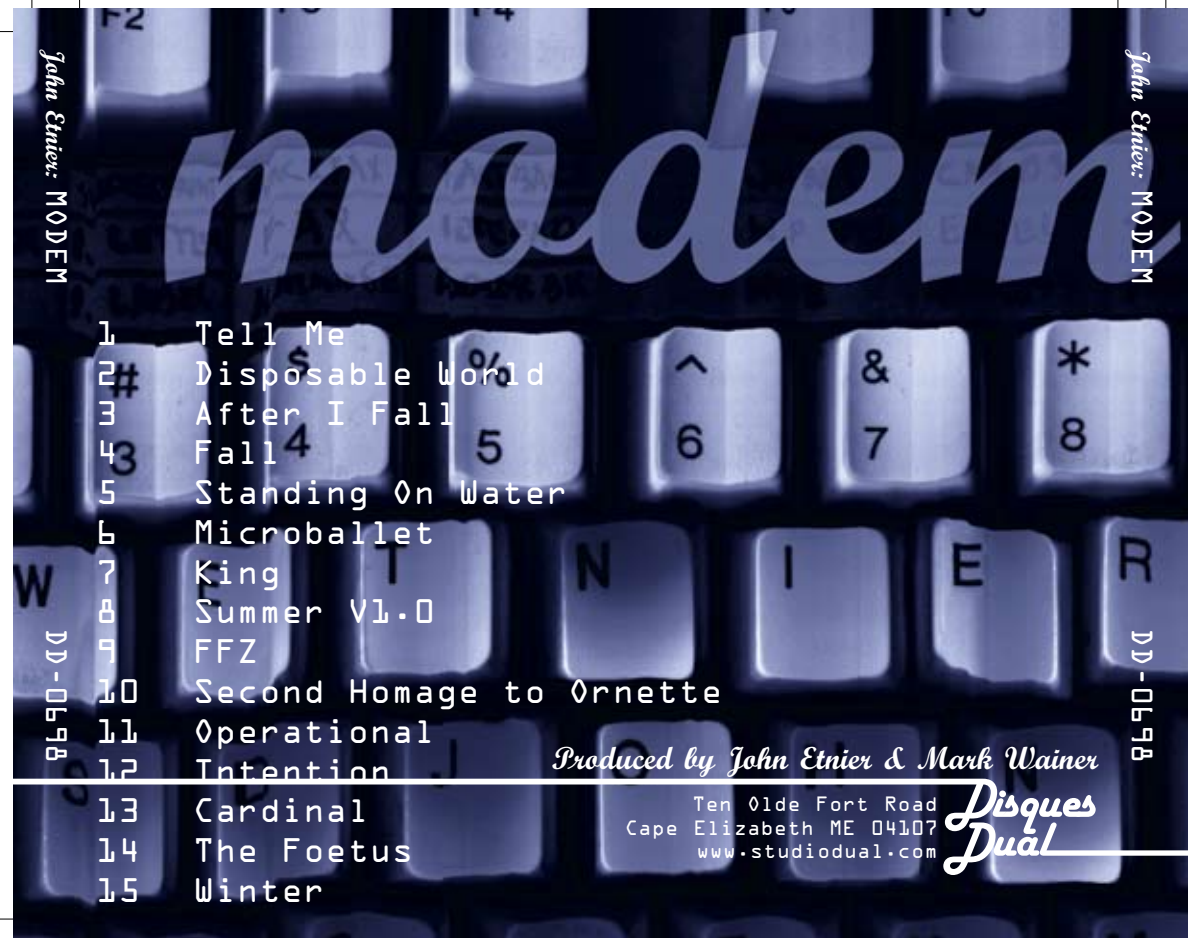

Photo: Dennis Griggs

INSIDE TRAY CARD

OUTSIDE TRAY CARD

(SCAN OF CD LABEL)

My solo CD, released in 1998. The principal cover images were created several years before that, when Script Bold wasn't in common use.

Produced by John Etnier & Mark Wainer

Ten Olds Fort Road
Cape Elizabeth ME 04107
www.studiidual.com

Disques Dual